Cariola Díez Pérez-Cotapos has advised Gemini Investments L.P. in the Series B financing round for Burn to Give Inc.

Cariola Díez Pérez-Cotapos, through Goodwin, has assisted Gemini Investments in the Series B funding round of Butterfly SpA's parent company, Burn to Give Inc. This round has included the world's leading venture capital investors such as DST Global, QED Investors, Valor Capital, Endeavor Catalyst and SoftBank Latin America Fund.

The deal, valued at $60 million US dollars, was closed on 15 June, and represents the largest insurtech fundraising round in Latin America to date.

Burn to Give is a wellbeing platform, founded in 2018, that enables organisations and their employees to improve their health, protect themselves and their families, and generate impact, based on a highly innovative insurtech model.

The US firm, Guderson, advised the vendor.
